

How does the scheduler look up login information?

Author:
TurboSoft, Inc.

Created On: 30 Sep 2005 03:33 AM

---

You can create a schedule task in the Scheduler. Note that the scheduler will look in the address book for the site profile given the remote server address in your schedule task profile. You need to ensure only one profile in your address book has the address of your FTP server to ensure Turboftp use the correct login info to access the server.