

What to do if the server is behind a NAT enabled firewa...

Author:
TurboSoft, Inc.

Created On: 30 Sep 2005 03:33 AM

Please go to Connect >Address Book > Connect Tab there > check the check box: "Server behind firewall that uses NAT". Server that use NAT could return its internal IP in reply to PASV command. By enabling this option the program uses the server's original IP to open a data connection.