

When the Sync Service runs no data is transferred as it...

Author:
TurboSoft, Inc.

Created On: 06 Jan 2006 02:10 AM

---

When at the end of sync task you see "No action performed", it means the program found nothing to transfer based on your sync settings. Verify your Sync Scheme (Task Settings | Synchronization). For example, if you are using scheme "Add only new files to destination", try adding a new file in the source folder and then hit the Run Now button of Task Scheduler (with the task highlighted) and check whether the new file is transferred.