

There are commands like FEAT, REST issued after logging...

Author:
TurboSoft, Inc.

Created On: 06 Jan 2006 02:14 AM

---

The FEAT is to determine features that the FTP server supports. And the REST is to know whether the server supports download/upload resuming. Error responses to these commands can be safely ignored.